AN EMBARRASSING MOMENT - BY SWINNERTON

Says it is suicide to cut corns and tells how they lift right out.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of treatons." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, arching corn should relive the soceness instantly, and soon the entire cern, root and all, can be lifted out with the fingers without pair.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Chicheatiman, who says that while freezone is stickly it dries in a moment, and seems to simply shrivel up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding itsues or skin.

Don't lot father die of infection or tockjaw from whitting af his corns, but cut this out and make him try if.
